Quote:

"New" between parenthesis because ...

after a difficult period of one and a half year we're glad to announce the return of not only singer Jo De Boeck, but keyboard player Danny Focke and bass player Gerry Verstreken have returned to the mothership as well. Newbie is drum player Bruno Goedhuys (Doncker, ex-Sengir).

The month of May saw a series of full band rehearsals, and we are currently shopping around for a record deal with the working demos for "Castles In The Sand". We even started recording the new album already (in the making since 1996), and hope to have it in stores by end of 2008.

As you can see, we also released a (demo version of a) new song "No Place For A Dreamer" on our myspace !
